FRESH FISH AND

pearance on the Local Market Friday.

CHICAGO, July 17 .- Sentiment in the wheat market was bearish almost all day, notwithstanding a 1d advance in wheat prices at Liverpool and an active demand for the cash grain at all grain centers in this country. Commission houses and local longs were free sellers all day as the result of the continuance of the favorable weather for the spring-sown crop but the upturn was of short duration, prices soon declining again because of renewed profit-taking. Crop news was conflicting and was ignored to a large extent. The market closed easy. September opened is to it lower, at 31c to 112c, sold between 90%c and 91%c, and closed at 90%c.

Corn was again irregular, the deliveries being firm and the distant futures rather weak. The close was irregular. September opened unchanged to it higher, at 75%c to 76%c, sold off to 75%c and then advanced to 76%c. The close was at 76%c.

Oats were weak early in the day, but rallied considerably later in the session. September opened unchanged at 43%c, sold between 42%c and 43%c and closed at 43%c. Provisions were firm all day. A 5c to 16c advance in live hogs was a bullish factor. At the close September pork was up 50%7%c; lard was 5c higher, at $9.5%. RANGE OF THE LEADING FUTURES.

FRUIT IN DEMAND

Grapes Made Their First Ap-

Market row afforded the usual display of "everything good in season" Friday, but, without exception, quotations on all edibles remained unchanged. Business brightened up slightly, almost all lines selling better than usual. Fish was in demand, as is always the case on that day of the week, but the greatest call was for fresh fruit, especially raspberries and currants.

The first grapes to be seen on the produce market in several months put in an appearance Friday, and met with a ready sale. The fruit was of the seedless variety, and was raised in California. A new vegetable, known as crook-neck summer squash, also made an appearance. This vegetable is as peculiar as its name. In shape it resembles a small hubbard squash, with the exception of having a longer and more crooked neck, but its color is a bright yellow, like that of a pumpkin squash.

Today is the day when the industrious housewife will go to town early to do her week-end shopping, and perhaps purchase some extra dainties for the Sunday dinner, and the dealers are striving to greet her with a complete display of all kinds of good things. Watermeions and cantaloupes will be specialties.

Dun's Trade Review.

Dun's Trade Review.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Dun's review of trade tomorrow will say:
Improvement is slow, but there is definite evidence of progress in the right direction. One of the beat signs is the agreement upon lower wage scales without a struggle, assuring resumption of much idle machinery that would have been impossible without adjustment to altered conditions. Current retail trade is of fairly good proportions for the season, and inventories indicate that recovery is not menaced by heavy stocks. Preparations for fall and winter trade is most active in the West, but there is a growing feeling of confidence in the future that is stimulated by good progress in the farms. More business is coming to the steel mills, although operations are still along conservative lines. Sentiment is improving more rapidly than actual conditions, as shown by the rapid rise in prices of securities of this industry, the common stock of the largest producer attaining the highest quotations of 1998 thus far. Sales of pig iron are not large, but numerous small orders aggregate a fair tonnage. Hides are firmly held. Foreign dry hides are fully maintained, extensive operations by Europeans giving a strong tone to River Plate markets.

Bradstreet's Review. NEW YORK, July 17 .- Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Trade and industry are still in a condi-tion of midsummer quiet, with prepara-tions for fall trade stimulated by generally good crop reports, going forward with confidence, but with conservatism ruling operations.
